EXCITEMENT IN IRELAND.

A POLICY OF COERCION BEGUN BY THE ENGLISH GOVERNMENT.

John Dillon Summons on a Criminal Action—Opinion Expressed That Parrell and Other Irish Leaders Will Be Imprisoned—A Domestic Tragedy in Germany—Foreign Flashes.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The government has at last begun what the Irish Nationalists have declared all along it would have to begin—a policy of coercion for Ireland. It is announced that all anti-union combinations are to be suppressed, the press to be restricted in its liberty, intimidation to be forcibly suppressed, the laws for the collection of debts enforced, and prominent agitators arrested. As a beginning John Dillon has been summoned to show cause why he should not be the subject of a criminal action for speaking in encouragement of resistance to the law, a meeting to be held at Sligo has been proclaimed, troops ordered to points where they may be needed, and it is reported that the United Ireland has been warned.

All this seems to have no effect on the Nationalists. They are planning to evade the terms of the prohibition of meetings, and Timothy Harrington, M. P., has called to President Parnell of the Irish League in America, that the leaders at home will not flinch. The tenants have been depositing their rents in the hands of trustees, when the landlords refused to make the concessions demanded, and it is reported that the government will begin cases against these trustees. Everybody is looking for hot times in Ireland, as the league will make a determined fight, and there is much excitement in Dublin.

It was announced Saturday afternoon that the government in addition to the case against John Dillon has decided to prosecute a number of other Nationalist leaders. The troops in Ireland have been reinforced by at least 4,000 men to enable the government to carry out its coercion policy.

Wild Excitement Throughout Ireland.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—R. P. P. received from Dublin Saturday says there is wild excitement throughout Ireland. The opinion is general that Mr. Parnell and other prominent Nationalist leaders will find themselves in prison before the opening of parliament. In political and club circles in London the same idea prevails. The prosecution of John Dillon, the boldest and one of the ablest of the Nationalist leaders, is looked upon as the opening shot of a sharp coercion campaign. Club circles in this city naturally approve the government's action in the Dillon affair. The Nationalists' express surprise that the action of the government was not first taken against Mr. William O'Brien, the editor of United Ireland, instead of Mr. Dillon. It is expected that the coercion act will ask the court to require Mr. Dillon to find heavy securities for his good behavior for six months.

A Victory for the Irish Party.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—Mr. Timothy Harrington, M. P., secretary of the Irish National League, in an interview on the subject of Mr. Dillon's arrest, said: "I regard the prosecution of Mr. Dillon as a great victory for the Irish party. By its action the government admits the complete failure of their rule in Ireland under the ordinary laws, and have taken the first step in the series of measures, prohibition of meetings, etc., which will doubtless follow."

Now Is the Accepted Time.

DUBLIN, Nov. 29.—An Armagh newspaper publishes a report of an interview alleged to have taken place between a Nationalist leader and a member of the royal land commission, in which the latter is said to have observed: "Now is the time for the tenant farmers to fight it out." The statement has caused a tremendous sensation.

KILLED HIS MAN.

A Rich Banker Slays His Wife's Lover

In a Duel.

MANNHEIM, Germany, Nov. 29.—A great sensation has been caused throughout the grand duchy by a domestic drama, in which tragedy was a wealthy Mannheim banker, his pretty wife, and a fascinating lieutenant of the dragons. The banker, a moody, preoccupied man, had for a long time neglected his wife, and she apparently found her isolation tedious. For when Lieut. Shies offered to act as her cavalier, she accepted his services. The banker saw no harm in his wife riding and driving with the young officer, but malicious rumors, which did not come to the ears of the banker, were soon in circulation. Several days ago it was reported that the couple had eloped, but it was found that the lady had gone to visit her brother-in-law's country house. The banker's suspicions were aroused, however, and on making inquiries he soon learned enough to convince him that he had been betrayed. He challenged the lieutenant, and the duel was fought Friday in a wood near this city. Shies deliberately fired wide of his mark, but the banker took careful aim and killed his opponent. The sympathy is all with the lieutenant, and nobody has a word to say for the banker, who has announced his intention of obtaining a divorce.

King Charles' Speech.

BUDAPEST, Nov. 29.—The speech of King Charles was read from the throne in the chamber of deputies Saturday. After referring to internal affairs his majesty touched on the Bulgarian question, and said that he was hopeful that peace would be maintained. He then announced that he had selected Prince Ferdinand as his heir. This is in accordance with the constitution of Rumania. (The succession to the throne of Rumania, in the event of King Charles remaining childless, was settled by article 80 of the constitution upon his elder brother, Prince Leopold, of Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen, who renounced his rights in favor of his son, Prince Ferdinand, the act having been registered by the senate in October, 1880.)

Creation of Port Hamilton.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The Morning Post says that the government is negotiating the creation of Port Hamilton in China, with the object of nullifying the pretense upon which Russia assumes to occupy Port Arthur and of securing effective protection of British interests in the case.

Slave Men on Strike.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 29.—The difference between Dr. H. H. & Co., stove manufacturers, and their workmen, culminated Saturday morning in a strike of forty men, causing a shut down in all departments, throwing 150 men out of employment. The strikers demand more pay, shorter hours of labor and a regular schedule of prices for piecework. The strikers will be supported by the International Iron Molders' union.

A Girl to Shoot the Rapids.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 29.—Sally Allan, aged 18, has promised to go through the rapids in a barrel with George, Hackett, Sunday.
